

Kristen Fitzpatrick, a 5th generation Montanan resides in Missoula. Professionally, Kristen has been a real estate advisor for the past nine years, assisting buyers, sellers, and investors in achieving their real estate goals. Prior to her career in real estate, Kristen worked as a human resource specialist and a full charge bookkeeper for various nonprofits and private businesses. She will soon be joining Glacier Wealth Management as an advisor assistant. In addition to her professional life, Kristen is actively involved in her community and serves as a member of the Red Coat's, supporting the Missoula Chamber in public relations. Kristen's spare time is spent with her family and friends, playing in Montana rivers and lakes, hiking, biking, attending concerts, and traveling to white sandy beaches whenever possible.