

Laci Rathbun - Bio

Born and raised in Missoula, Laci graduated from the University of Montana with a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration, with an emphasis on Marketing and Nonprofit Administration. In 2011, she and her husband opened Donation Warehouse, a used furniture and appliance store that fundraiser for child abuse prevention locally. She is also a property manager, certified water-operator, and co-founder of local parenting resource, 406 Families. She enjoys spending time with her husband and three kids enjoying the outdoors on dirt bikes and snowmobiles.