Morgan Becker was born and raised in Missoula. After graduating from the University of Montana with a Bachelor's degree in Business Management, she started her career with TrailWest Bank. Morgan is a Commercial and Consumer Loan Officer at TrailWest Bank, where she excels in building relationships with individuals, small business lending, and community education and outreach. She leverages her expertise in business management, to effectively oversee the Dearborn branch. Her dedication to client service and local engagement drives her lending success.

Outside of work, Morgan enjoys taking full advantage of the scenic beauty of her hometown. She loves floating the river, camping with friends, and skiing with her fiancé.
