

Bio

Originally from southeastern Texas, Paul Byron embarked on a transformative journey when he moved to Utah at 17, where he discovered his career in the RV and automotive industry. Over the past 28 years, Paul has worked in a variety of roles within dealerships, honing his expertise and leadership skills. His 20-plus years of experience in leading teams have been marked by a commitment to excellence and a passion for growing talent.

In 2011, Paul joined the Young Automotive Group, where he found a supportive and dynamic environment that aligned with his values. His tenure with the group has been marked by significant achievements, including opening a new location in Idaho Falls and contributing to two key acquisitions that expanded the group into new and thriving communities, such as Missoula, MT.

Paul's greatest passion is mentoring and developing people. He takes immense pride in coaching and growing those around him, finding the most satisfaction in seeing others succeed and flourish in their careers. As General Manager of Young Mazda Missoula, Paul continues to lead with dedication and enthusiasm, driving both personal and professional growth within his team and the broader community.
