

Taylor Graham

Born and raised in Kalispell, MT Taylor attended Montana State University – Bozeman where he studied Mechanical Engineering and played football for the Bobcats. After suffering a knee injury, he left MSU and began a 6-year career at Five on Black, moving to Colorado to open locations in Boulder and Denver. Upon returning to Missoula, he enrolled at Montana State University – Billings to pursue his bachelor's in accounting and joined Boyle, Deveny & Meyer for the 2018 tax season as an intern. He received his CPA license at the end of 2022 and is currently building his practice and establishing his role at the firm. Taylor is an avid rafter, gardener, and hunter and he and his wife Emily live south of Missoula in Florence along with their five sheep, two dogs, and two cats.