

Alyssa L. Campbell Bio

My name is Alyssa L. Campbell and I am an attorney with Milodragovich, Dale & Steinbrenner. P.C. I have been practicing law for about five years now and my practice encompasses a wide range of civil litigation areas, including insurance defense, personal injury (plaintiffs and defendants), water law, real estate litigation, and advising small businesses. I am a 5th generation Montanan and mom to two rambunctious young daughters. I spend my free time engaging in whatever outdoor recreational activities the Montana seasons permit, enjoying concerts, or visiting my many extended family members throughout the state.
