

Elliott grew up in Salt Lake City, Utah before moving to Montana to attend Carroll College in 2012. After college, Elliott attended the University of Montana School of Law, graduating with honors in 2020. During law school, Elliott worked as an intern at Boone Karlberg, completed a clinical externship with the U.S. Bankruptcy Court, and was a member of the Montana Law Review and National Moot Court team. Following law school, Elliott served as a law clerk to the Hon. Benjamin P. Hursh, Chief Bankruptcy Judge for the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Montana. Elliott's legal practice focuses on commercial transactions and litigation, real estate, creditor bankruptcy, banking, and construction matters. During his free time, Elliott enjoys spending time hunting, fishing, camping, hiking, and skiing with his wife, daughter, and two dogs.
