

Holly Moore joined Opportunity Mortgage over 8 years ago as a Loan Officer Assistant. She currently works with three of the top producing Loan Officers in Missoula.

Holly is one of five kids and grew up in a suburb of Chicago. She came to Missoula to attend the University of Montana. After graduating with her bachelor's in science and moving away twice, she realized Missoula was home. She met her husband Cody here; he is native Montanan, and they are celebrating their 10-year wedding anniversary in September. Together they have two daughters- Autumn (8 years old) and Hazel (6 years old).

She spends her free time reading, traveling with her family and friends, and hiking.
