

Lukash Hoff-Pruss is a mechanical engineer at Morrison-Maierle and has recently moved into the position of Buildings Group Office Leader in the Missoula office. In this position, Lukash manages a multi-disciplinary team of 11 engineers. Lukash is a Montana State University graduate and has been residing in Missoula since 2017. In his free time, he enjoys recreating in the outdoors with his wife and dog, gardening, and attending concerts. As a participant in Leadership Missoula, Lukash is looking forward to expanding his community-involvement and creating new relationships.