

Staci Nugent is a Missoula native and University of Montana graduate with bachelor's degrees in finance and marketing. Since 2009, she has played a pivotal role in her family's business, Paradise Falls, eventually becoming co-owner alongside her father in 2019. Staci has served nine years on the Destination Missoula board of directors and is currently serving on the Grizzly Scholarship Association board and is co-treasurer for her children's PTA. Alongside her husband Mike, also a Missoula native, she is a proud parent to two children, James and Hannah.