

Vanessa Hendrix is the current Store Manager of Orange Street Food Farm. The majority of Vanessa's childhood was spent at her family's ranch in Florence, MT. She moved back to Missoula to finish high school at Big Sky High School in 2000. After graduation, she began working at Orange Street Food Farm as a bagging clerk. Vanessa has spent 21 years moving through positions at Food Farm eventually being promoted to the store manager position in 2015. She spends most of her time at Orange Street getting to know the Missoula community members and teaching the ins and outs of the grocery business to the many amazing people that have come to work there over the years. When she isn't at the store, Vanessa and her family enjoy all the activities Montana has to offer, including camping, rafting, skiing, softball, hiking and kayaking. She currently lives in Missoula with her two children Keeley (17), Owen (13) and her dog Murphy (5).
