

Kina Kuhn was born and raised in Missoula and is lucky enough to live in the Rattlesnake home her father helped build and was raised in. Blessed with 3 children, she and her husband have been married for 22 years. A lover of anything outdoors she tries to take advantage of all Montana has to offer and spends much of her time at their family cabin in Seeley Lake. A University of Montana Alum, Kina has been employed by Blackfoot Communications since November of 1999, her current role focuses on Project Management and Customer Experience.
